

The Railway Age in its annual summary for the past year says that there were 7,120 miles of track laid in the United States in 1888, as compared with the 13,000 (about) of the year before. Kansas leads in new mileage, as it did in 1887, with 601 miles, and California, with 560 miles, comes in a good second. Georgia, 452 miles, is third, and other States that built over one hundred miles are as follows: Maine 126, Pennsylvania 114, Michigan 347, Ohio 148, Illinois 300, Wisconsin 147, Virginia 142, North Carolina 174, South Carolina 221, Florida 121, Alabama 294, Tennessee 185, Kentucky 353, Missouri 260, Texas 323, Colorado 268, Minnesota 303, Dakota 149, Nebraska 196, Montana 120, Washington Territory 325, Oregon 116. Only two of the States and Territories are reported as building no new road—Nevada and Rhode Island. The 560 miles in California were divided among thirty-four different lines, but this may be explained by the fact that many of the apparent new lines are really branches of the Southern Pacific or Santa Fe systems. The seven Pacific Coast States and Territories show an aggregate new mileage of 1,055 miles, contrasted with a total of only 452 miles in all the New England and Eastern States. The 7,120 miles were built by 365 different companies. The construction work was more extensive and widely distributed than was predicted at the beginning of the year. Most of the great companies that built the larger part of the track in 1887 suspended construction work when that year closed, but new companies sprang up and carried on the work. The Age, commenting, says the result has proved that the expansive and creative capacity of this great land was not generally realized. The new mileage of California exceeds that of 1887. California's total is now 3,412 miles. The track built during 1888 makes the present mileage of the United States 157,830 miles.

FALL CURRENCY.

Growing Popularity of Coin Certificates.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—During the calendar year just closed there was a large increase in the paper currency of the country. This increase was in the form of coin certificates, and aggregated $101,479,961. Of this amount over $32,000,000 were gold and over $69,000,000 silver certificates. Of the former there are now outstanding $128,888,448 and of the latter $24,219,939. Adding these two amounts to the legal tender notes, makes the volume of United States paper currency now outstanding, exclusive of national bank notes, $448,161,053.

The issue of silver certificates the last six months has been so steady and large that the number of standard silver dollars in the Treasury owned by the Government is reduced to $8,186,870. One year ago this amount was over $42,000,000 and two years ago over $72,000,000. The issue of certificates of small denomination has resulted in running down the Government's ownership of silver dollars. The number of these coins in actual circulation is less than $64,000,000.

Over 315,000,000 silver dollars have been coined under the act of February, 1887, and the issuance of certificates of small denominations has brought 307,000,000 of these dollars into use.

The Public Debt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The debt statement is condensed as follows: Interest-bearing debt—principal, $941,041,652; interest, $11,950,343; total, $952,991,995. Debt on which interest has ceased since maturity—principal and interest, $2,255,478; debt bearing no interest, $731,015,796. Total debt—principal, $1,174,157,144; interest, $11,211,127; total $1,185,368,271. Total debt, less available cash items, $1,194,598,522. Net cash in the Treasury, December 1, 1888, $1,148,494,833. Decrease of the debt since June 30, 1888, $31,529,393. Total cash in the Treasury, as shown by the Treasurer's account, $651,591,077.

The change made in the sugar schedule by the Senate sub-committee in charge of the tariff bill provides for a bounty of 1 cent a pound upon all sugar raised in this country. This has been, it is said, fully agreed upon.

When the result of the caucus was made known Sunday night, a common, but very expressive, remark that is used around Reno gamblers can be heard about the corridors of the Capitol.

A great many of the boys now say they consider this caucusing business "highly unwarranted and improper."

A Promising Mine.

For several years A. C. Pratt, formerly editor of the Carson Free Lance, has been at work developing a mining property known as the Young and Fish in Wellington district, in Douglas county, and now the property promises to become, when properly opened and suitable machinery erected, a heavy bullion producer. The location comprises 4,500 feet, or, in other words, three locations upon the same view. They have a small, two-stamp prospecting mill in operation, but owing to the scarcity of water even this small affair cannot be kept in constant operation. It is their intention to drive a tunnel a distance of 500 feet for the purpose of getting a supply of water. This project has now been driven in 340 feet and the remaining distance will be completed this winter. When this enterprise reaches the point for which it was projected they will receive sufficient water to operate a ten stamp mill. This will place the proposition on a paying basis. There is sufficient timber on the location for mining purposes for years to come and the mine being a tunnel proposition it can be worked at a comparatively light cost. The tunnel will tap the vein at the depth of 500 feet thereby giving them heavy producing "back." They have labored hard and persistently but their reward is now within their reach and another dividend proposition will be added to Nevada's category of paying mining enterprises.

There is in the neighborhood of 1,000 feet of openings on the mine and from every one paying ore has been extracted and reduced in the little mill and the mine thus far has been self-sustaining.

Banishing the Deadly Car Stove.

The stove, as a means of heating cars on the New York Central and Hudson Railroad is entirely abolished.

During the past year the officials of the New York Central in charge of its passenger equipment have been actively employed in testing various devices for heating cars by means of steam obtained direct from the locomotive, and have decided on a system combining simplicity of construction and management with the most satisfactory results. A 2-inch iron steam pipe runs under each of the cars, connection being made with a metallic joint and a sleeve. This main pipe connects with a system of pipes inside each car, with branch pipes extending under the seats. At the centre of each of the interior pipes is a key by which the steam from the main pipes can be cut off, thus reducing the temperature of a single car without interfering with that of cars more distant from the locomotive, which is the source of the steam supply.

Since the advent of cold weather all the cars composing the trains known as the New York, Chicago and St. Louis Vestibule Limited, and the New York, Chicago, Cincinnati and St. Louis fast express, besides a large number of the local trains running on the various parts of the road, have been successfully heated by this means.

All the drawing-room, sleeping and dining cars, passenger coaches, and the baggage, mail, express and postal cars in service on the line, will be fully equipped with the steam-heating appliances.

Nevada Corn.

The impression seems to prevail among those who are not familiar with the producing power of Nevada soil that corn will not do well here. This is a mistaken idea. On the Keyser and Elrod ranch, on the head of the Carson river at an altitude of nearly 6,000 feet above the sea level, some of the finest corn was raised last season as ever matured in the Mississippi Valley. Last season they only planted three acres but the yield was very heavy and the kernels plump and the ear large. The products that would take to our sugar-brush soil are numerous and when experiments are made it will be found that Nevada can raise anything that can be produced in the Middle-Western States.

Weather Sharps.

Every Fall there is much speculation rife regarding the severity of the approaching winter, and as a general thing the prophecies that meet with the most credence emanate from the red men. The Indians may be infallible when it comes to the pine-bark or the ground squirrel business, they may be able to reason out the natural peculiarities of both, but somehow they, to use billiard parlance, "get kissed off" occasionally. There is no copper colored breach-cloth weather that ever lived, no matter if he has watched pine-nuts and squirrels all his life, has any license to beat the average white man in a dead square guess.

For The Library.

The Parlor Dramatic Co., which will appear at the opera house next Saturday Eve. in the drama entitled "Under the Laurels" is doing all in their power to make their performance successful in every particular. The people should remember that money expended for tickets will be for the benefit of a library to be started in Reno soon. The drama promises to be very good. Tickets for sale at Nasby's.

THE RISE OF JOHN WANAMAKER.

Interesting Story of a Probable Cabinet Minister's Life—Starting on $100.

Guth's Philadelphia Dispatch in Cincinnati Enquirer: That John Wanamaker will go into Harrison's Cabinet is now looked upon here as a settled fact. It is understood that he is already looking about for a suitable home in Washington. It may be, however, that he will get a portfolio other than the Postmaster-Generalship. That place, the best of all for patronage, may go to some one else. Just now Mr. Wanamaker is down for Secretary of the Interior.

When John Wanamaker was 23 years of age he had saved by hard work and self-privation just $100, which was the foundation of the fortune of Philadelphia's merchant prince. This little sum he had accumulated during the time he was employed in a clothing store, where he had worked many years. He had formerly been employed in a book store, but found this business unsuited to his taste, and he left the book business for a more lucrative place in the clothing store, where he received $1.50 per week for his services. Early habits of industry had been instilled into him by his parents—hard working people who operated a brickyard outside of this city, and where from his early infancy John was taught to improve his hours after school in cutting and shaping bricks.

By a lucky real estate investment he turned his $100 into $2,000, and with this $2,000 he started in the clothing business for himself. This also marked his entrance into public life, for he soon was looked upon as a prominent merchant of the city. His financial condition, however, was regarded as shaky, and at the beginning of the war his failure was looked for at any time. His excellent business qualities guided him safely through those turbulent times, and after the great struggle he found himself a wealthy man. He became one of the leading clothiers of the country, but this business he gradually abandoned for his great dry goods store, which is now the largest establishment of the kind in the world.

Long before this he identified himself with all public movements. When the Centennial Celebration Commission was created he was one of the first names mentioned. He was made Chairman of the Bureau of Revenue, and through his activity the first million dollars for the project was raised. He was also Chairman of the Press Committee, and did much for the success of the Exposition.

He was subsequently an active member of the Committee of One Hundred, which took upon itself the correction of many flagrant abuses existing in the municipal government. In cases of public calamity his name is always found at the head of the subscription list, but at the same time he also does much good in quietly dispensing money for charitable purposes.

His great store gives employment to 700 persons, and he prides himself that he could go and leave it for a year and his business would not suffer in the least. He is also the proprietor of the Hotel Walton, which is designed for the working girls of his establishment. Here they are given the comforts of a well-regulated home at a very low price, each one paying her share of the total expenses of the concern.

Bethany Mission, which now has one of the largest schools in the country attached to it, was projected by Mr. Wanamaker. It was started in an abandoned shoemaker's shop in a part of the city where disorder and crime ruled supreme. The entire vicinity has been reclaimed, and the neighborhood is now eminently respectable. The Sunday School has 2,300 persons on its rolls, and is housed in a large and beautiful structure. The Bethany College is an adjunct to the school, where useful arts and accomplishments are taught to young persons. Though he has never held public office, Mr. Wanamaker has always shown a commendable interest in public affairs, and he has been solicited to stand as a candidate for Congress and for Mayor of Philadelphia. During the last Presidential campaign he was active in the cause of protection, and he raised considerable money for campaign purposes.

Mr. Wanamaker has been recently selected as one of the trustees of the I. V. Williamson Free School of Mechanical Trades. Mr. Wanamaker was born July 11, 1837, his father being of German parentage and his mother a descendant of the red Indians. He is worth $3,000,000 in real estate alone, outside of his vast trade in his business. Mr. Wanamaker is a man of refined tastes. He maintains two houses at present—one in a fashionable part of Walnut street, near Bond, the other at Jenkintown, one of Philadelphia's suburbs. The latter is considered one of the handsomest Summer mansions of the neighboring country. He takes great delight in the latter and has given careful attention to its improvement and adornment. Such time as Mr. Wanamaker can get away from business he likes to have to himself and to his family. He spends a long working day in his great establishment and on leaving there gets out of the public horizon as quickly as possible. He is a member of the Union League Club, but is not often seen there.

His family consists of his wife and three children, two sons and one daughter. His younger son, Thomas B., was recently married to Miss Minnie Welsh, a granddaughter of the late Hon. John Welsh, one of Philadelphia's most respected and public spirited citizens, once Minister to the Court of St. James. Both Thomas and the other son, Rodman, are connected with their father's business. Mr. Wanamaker is a zealous worker in the Presbyterian fold. His purse is often opened to contribute to church funds for charitable and other purposes, but his interests carry him further than mere money contribution. He is prominent at church gatherings, and is often called on to speak in behalf of church interests. For several years he has identified himself particularly with Bethany Sunday-school in the southwestern part of the city. He discerned the need there for active missionary work, and at once put his shoulder to the wheel and reared the present Sunday-school, which is the largest in the city. He works himself among the children, throwing a hearty energy into its affairs.

Owen Lake Soda Works.

The S. F. Chronicle says two thousand tons of crude soda, taken from the waters of Owens lake, are now ready for purifying at Keeler, Inyo county, Cal. Twenty per cent. of the whole amount, or 400 tons, will be bicarbonate of soda, the wholesale value of which is $70 a ton. The other constituents are said to be worth about $30 a ton; so that altogether the 2,000 tons of material will be worth $76,000. E. F. Gray, superintendent of the works at Keeler, has discovered a new process of purifying the crude soda which he has patented. It is asserted that this process is much more effective and far cheaper than the old way of working. Twenty-one men are now employed, but many more will be at work there next Spring. The making of the tanks to contain the soda is now nearly finished, and the process of purifying the soda will soon be commenced, when thirty tons a day will be worked. The company believes that it has struck a bonanza, as it has the whole lake to draw from, and its supplies of crude material are, therefore, practically inexhaustible.

She was at a dance and musicale the other evening, dressed handsomely in white satin. She wore black kites, however. "Why did you not wear white gloves?" asked a friend. "O, my cousin died at Cheyenne last night, and I had to show some respect to her memory," and she continued the giddy whirl with her partner.—Denver News.

The Streets Thronged and Caucusing the Order of the Day.
The streets of the Capital presented a lively appearance on Sunday and "buttonholing" Senators and Assemblymen was the order of the day. On Saturday the members commenced dropping in, and the evening and Sunday morning trains brought in the remainder of the complement, and also an army of position seekers who immediately commenced work in earnest. Every Senator and Assemblyman was chased from one place to another or collared on the street by aspiring candidates for office, until many of them, tired of the constant rigging in their ears "I'm for this or that in the Senate," sought relief in the solitude of Shaw's Hot Springs, or escaped in a buggy behind a dashing pair of horses. The hotels were crowded, but the day being remarkably balmy and pleasant, knots of men were scattered here and there in the sunshine holding quiet discussions, and no doubt laying important plans for the future. Virginia City turned out well as did also Reno, but it seemed to the casual observer that about four-fifths of those on the street were there for the purpose of obtaining something at the hands of our representatives. The saloons did a smashing business, but to the credit of the large number of patrons to Bacchus, no one indulged to excess, and consequently good humor and order prevailed. As the day faded away and the hour approached for the meeting of the caucus, the candidates manifested great anxiety and no doubt many of them soliloquized "I only wish I had more time to work in."
The members of our Legislature are an intelligent assemblage of men, and have no doubt a fair family with those who came before them for favors. At 7 o'clock they commenced winding their way to the Capitol building. But it was about 8 o'clock before the entire assemblage were closed. Both Houses went to work in earnest, and the work before them was carried out more promptly than many looked for, considering the number of names for their consideration. When the result was announced the disappointed ones took their defeat good naturedly and mingled with their successful opponents in the most friendly manner. Washoe county was particularly favored in the selection of office-holders, and for which courtesy every successful candidate and the people return the most cordial thanks.
THE LEGISLATURE.
Organized and Ready for Business.
The fifteenth session of the Nevada Legislature opened in Carson yesterday. The officers of the Senate are Evan Williams, President pro tempore; O. H. Grey, Secretary; Geo. I. Lammson, Assistant Secretary; Sam Davis, Sergeant-at-Arms; E. L. Buckingham, Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms; S. Summerfield, Minute Clerk; Edward Fay, Journal Clerk; R. M. Hunt, Enrolling Clerk; Geo. Gould, Engrossing Clerk; Mrs. Hatch and Mrs. Wright, Copying Clerks; J. W. Ferguson and Miss Prince, Committee Clerks; Chas. Nash, Messenger; George Heuning and Harry Young, Pages; E. Lockerman, Porter. The Assembly selected as Speaker, Treasurer, Clerk, Speaker pro tem, H. H. Brock; Chief Clerk, C. M. Fassett; Assistant Clerk, Ed. Vandeleit; Sergeant-at-Arms, Con. Abner; Assistant Sergeant-at-Arms, Chas. Burlingame; Journal Clerk, H. C. Cutting; Minute Clerk, N. W. Hoff; Enrolling Clerk, H. B. Maxon; Engrossing Clerk, B. O. Truman; Copying Clerks, Kay Henry and Ceta Brophy; Committee Clerks, Geo. H. B. H. Ben Edson, James Thomas; Messengers, T. Wyckoff, Pages, James Fanning, and Nelson Brattle; Porter, Morrison Fellows.
Lively Towns.
Notwithstanding that Carson now holds our county and State representatives, and that Virginia City is the managing metropolis of the State, business and times generally are as good or better in Reno than in either the above-mentioned places. There are more people and the display is greater in Virginia, but many of those who make up its present population are now idle and money is just as scarce there as it is here. Our business men have no reason to complain of dull times. When compared with other Nevada towns the comparison is decidedly in favor of Reno.
Prize Fight.
A skin glove contest will take place in Carson between Matt Brannon, a local celebrity, and Julius Elliot, a San Francisco sport, about the 20th of this month at the Opera House. A forfeit of $50 has been deposited and the balance of the stakes, $250, will be given to the stakeholder on the 15th of the month. Brannon goes into training under the care of "Shorty" and Arthur Donnelly will perform the same service for Elliot. Those who are posted say it will be no fake but a fight to the finish for blood and money. Our law in Carson will not only have made a name for this season, but pugilism also.

The New Paper.
The new paper that was to have come into existence in Virginia City ere this has no doubt failed to make its appearance through lack of necessary funds. The reason why men of means failed to subscribe the amount required for the purchase of the plant is potent to a keen observer. The field is limited, and it would be uphill business to try and establish a third paper and place it upon a paying basis. The same project has been time and time again advocated in Reno but as often, and for the same reason, the project fell through. Nevada newspaper men are not amassing heavy fortunes even in non-competitive fields. If drifting the wrong way brought wealth, many of them would have long since retired in affluence, and the State would have had many accessories to its millionaires. Yet the world thinks that newspaper proprietors are hoarding up the "filthy lucre" by the ton.
Sporting men are legion at Carson but they seem to be getting "more feathers than chicken." Nevada statesmen are not patronizing the many games very extensively.
Go to Lange & Schmitt for parlor gloves.
What Am I to Do?
The symptoms of biliousness are unappetite but too well-known. They differ in different individuals to some extent. A bilious man is seldom a breakfast eater. Too frequently, also, he has an excellent appetite for liquids but none for solids of a morning. His tongue will hardly bear inspection at any time; if it is not white and furred it is rough at all events.
The digestive system is wholly out of order and diarrhea or constipation may be a symptom or the two may alternate. There are often hemorrhoids or even loss of blood. There may be giddiness and often headache and acidity or flatulence and tenderness in the pit of the stomach. To correct all this if not effect a cure try Green's August Flower, it costs but a trifle and thousands attest its efficacy.
Advice to Mothers.
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so, send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures colic and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. (Jan. 21-1900)
Coal, Coal, "Coal."
Pleasant Valley coal is the best and cheapest fuel in the market. 3 tons of P. V. coal equals five tons Rocky Mountain coal, by actual test. No slate or clinkers. One ton P. V. coal equals 3 cords common pine wood. Give it a trial and be convinced. Leave orders with or enquire of Wm. Hopkins, Depot Hotel or coal house, or at Nash's.

THE OLD RELIABLE FURNITURE HOUSE OF
John Breuner is well worthy of note, and we take pleasure in devoting to it due space and attention. Mr. Breuner has been engaged in this business for thirty-three years and conducts one of the largest business houses in California. He manufactures and deals in all kinds of furniture and bedding, and has established a most enviable celebrity for the excellence of the goods turned out by his house. He carries a very large stock, embracing all grades and kinds of furniture and quotes prices that defy competition. His goods are all first-class, made of the best material and first-class workmanship, and the people cannot find a more advantageous house to deal with. He carries a supply of photographs of all goods, which will be sent free of charges to any address, and by this method people at a distance can select goods at home as well as in person at his house, and may rest assured of being satisfactorily and fairly treated by him. This is a most convenient and pleasant method for those abroad, and we recommend a trial of it.

A RARE CHANCE FOR INVESTMENT AND A HOME

THE MOST LOVELY PORTION OF RENO.

Facing the Truckee—The Aristocratic Riverside Avenue Driveway—Splendid Sewerage—Healthy Location and Safe From Fire.

The proprietor is now ready to receive proposals for lots in Powning's Addition. The map gives a good idea of the Tract, which is situated between the Central Pacific Railroad and the Truckee River, and commences on the west at a point three blocks distant from Virginia Street, making it the most central and convenient of any portion of the rapidly growing town of Reno. Unlike any other part of the town this Addition faces the beautiful Truckee River and Riverside Avenue is certain to become the fashionable driveway of the country. The streets are 80 feet wide, while Riverside and Keystone Avenues are intended to be 100 feet in width. All alleys are 20 feet wide. The soil is a rich gravelly loam, and susceptible of the highest state of cultivation. Being situated as it is it is more safe from fire than any other section. The regular lots are 50x140 feet. The sewerage is perfect.

Before Buying Elsewhere Parties will do Well to Look at These Lots.

RENO

Reno's geographical position is excellent. It is on the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, only 154 miles from Sacramento, and 244 miles from San Francisco. It is the terminus of the Virginia and Truckee Railroad running south, and of the Nevada and California Railroad running north. It has two Flouring Mills, Planing Mills, three Nurseries, a Soap Factory, Reduction Works, and other industries. A great Woolen Mill and a Sash, Door, Blind and Box Factory, are about to be established.

Reno has the Bank of Nevada with $300,000 capital, and the First National Bank with $200,000 capital. It has two fine papers in the DAILY and WEEKLY NEVADA STATE JOURNAL and the Daily and Weekly Gazette.

Reno is the natural home of the Alfalfa, and therefore the great cattle headquarters of the State. Here are fed the prime beef for the California market. Reno potatoes are the best in the world, and she also excels in Strawberries and the small fruits. Reno Wheat took the first prize at the great New Orleans Exposition. The State Fair is always held at Reno.

Reno is the County Seat of Washoe County, the wealthiest county in Nevada.

Situated in the very heart of the celebrated Truckee Meadows the future of Reno is assured. Reno is the City of Homes. There is not a house to rent in Reno. New buildings are occupied as fast as erected. Reno has advantages which no other town can equal. The climate is mild and genial in Winter, and even and healthful in Summer. There are no excessively heated or severely cold terms, and while the days may be warm in Summer the nights are deliciously cool; in Winter sleigh-riding is the exception and not the rule.

Facilities for irrigating surpass any in the State, and there is no failure of crops. Reno has Churches of all denominations, Bishop Whitaker's School for Girls, Mt. St. Mary's Academy, the State University, and splendid Public Schools.
